KENTUCKY COLONEL CHAPTER

REMEMBER THIS

If you work for a man, in Heaven's name, WORK for him. If he pays you wages which supply you bread and butter, work for him; speak well of him; stand by him and stand by the institution he represents. If put to a pinch, an ounce of loyalty is worth a pound of cleverness. If you must vilify, condemn and eternally disparage - resign your position, and when you are outside, damn to your heart's content, but as long as you are a part of the institution do not condemn it. If you do that, you are loosening the tendrils that are holding you to the institution, and at the first high wind that comes along, you will be uprooted and blown away, and probably will never know the reason why.

PREZ SEZ

May is that month when we know summer is just around the corner and it is time for another school year to come to an end and we can plan for that much needed vacation.

We of the Kentucky Colonel Chapter know May is synonymous with SCHOLARSHIP. We look forward to the opportunity of having our scholarship recipients as our guests. We also focus our attention to those hallowed halls of ivy for a guest speaker---this year is no exception. Brenda has a representative from Western as speaker.

May also means ANNIVERSARY AND BOSS NIGHT plans are in the making. For our new members and perhaps a reminder to our seasoned members, may I set the scene for our upcoming events.

Anniversary is that time we celebrate the establishment of our Chapter and honor those members who have made outstanding contributions to our Chapter. Perfect Attendance at regular dinner meetings recognition is a highlight. Perfect Attendance is counted from June to June. Our By Laws, Article VII: The regular meeting of the Chapter shall consist of a dinner meeting at which a pre-planned program or speaker is presented, which is followed by a regular business meeting and shall be held on the fourth Tuesday of each month. If for some reason you have to miss our Chapter regular meeting, National has provided a way to maintain perfect attendance. Any member who misses a meeting of her chapter, but who has a reasonable excuse, may maintain her record of perfect attendance by attending a meeting of a sister chapter either in her own city or elsewhere, provided the meeting is attended thirty days before or thirty days after the date of the meeting which is missed. Our sister chapter, Bowling Green Charter, meets on the first Tuesday of each month at the Greenwood Interchange Holiday Inn. I challenge each of the new members to strive for perfect attendance and encourage our seasoned members to maintain their perfect records.

BOSS NIGHT needs our attention! Be sure your Boss of the Year Letter is ready for the May dinner meeting. Get your RESERVATIONS to Becky as soon as possible.

Pat Glasscock, President

HOW TO STRENGTHEN OUR ORGANIZATION

Attend Meetings Regularly

1. Make it a matter of principle to attend meetings regularly. You can't participate unless you are physically present.
2. Be more than a "joiner" or dues-payer. If you think an organization is worth joining, then it deserves your personal, active, and continuing support.
3. Don't stay away from meetings just because they are not run the way you think they should be. Strive patiently to improve them and encourage others to do the same.
4. Remember, you have little right to grumble about meetings if you don't bother to attend them.

Keep in Mind the Purposes of Your Organization

1. Occasionally review the By Laws in the Procedure Manual.
2. Persuade fellow members to stick to the purposes of the organization.

Live up to the Duties of Membership

1. A good member willingly fulfills the responsibilities that go along with her rights.
2. A good member knows that what she does or leaves undone, helps or hurts everybody.
3. A good member realizes her limitations, but does what is reasonably expected of her.
4. A good member opens her ears to listen as well as opens her mouth to speak.
5. A good member carries out decisions promptly and intelligently.

Show A Personal Interest

1. Work in any organization can become quite cold and impersonal unless the members go out of their way to inject a warm, personal note to everything they do.
2. Be cordial instead of distant or hostile.
3. Blend gentleness with firmness when you must take a stand.

4. Keep lines of communication open.
5. Disagree without becoming disagreeable.
6. Give assurance to those who are frustrated.
7. Respect the feelings and viewpoints of others - no matter how much they differ from yours.
8. Listen attentively when others have the floor.
Whispering or causing distractions is discourteous, to say the least.

Be a Peacemaker

A sign hangs on the wall of one dedicated official who is often caught in the middle of various opposing groups. It reads: "Blessed are the peacemakers---for they shall catch the devil from both sides!" When misunderstandings arise, you can help clear the air by trying to reach a peaceful accord.

Give your Officers Respect and Co-operation

Even if persons whom you did not support are elected to office, they represent you. They should get the whole-hearted help you would expect if you were in their place.

1. Offer constructive suggestions.
2. Don't tell them only what you think they want to hear.
3. On the other hand, don't keep serving up a stream of narrowly critical complaints.
4. Speak well of your officers to non-members.

Encourage Don't Discourage

A "wet blanket" is defined as: "A person or thing that quenches or dampens enthusiasm, pleasure, or the like."

1. "Wet blankets" are quick to complain about a situation, but slow to do anything about it.
2. They are more interested in fault-finding than in fact finding.
3. They are accustomed to speak of the group as "they" instead of "we".
4. Don't be a "wet blanket". Be a candlelighter, more anxious to improve than disapprove, more interested in getting action than fixing the blame for inaction, more concerned with winning cooperation, than winning arguments.

Persuade Capable Persons to Run for Office

Leaders seldom rise much above the level of those who take a hand in choosing them.

1. Point out to individuals with the capacity and motivation what great good they can do by serving in positions of leaderships.
2. Find out beforehand their qualifications: Do they represent the best thinking of the group? Will they move ahead prudently or rest on their oars? Can they get along with people? Do they have vision and initiative? Will they train new persons to understudy them? Are they persons of moral character?
3. Act on the basis of such qualifications, not personal loyalty or selfish advantage.
4. Stand by them once they are elected.

Samuel Johnson once said "Great works are performed not by strength, but by PERSEVERANCE."

WELCOME, NEVA WATT

Our newest member is Neva Kaye Watt who is payroll clerk at the Electric Plant Board. She and her son Roger Allan Watt reside on Route #3, Smiths Grove, Kentucky. Her hobby is sewing. Neva's favorite color is blue and her favorite food is salads. We are real glad to have you as a member of our organization!

MAY IS SCHOLARSHIP MONTH

Be sure to get acquainted with our scholarship recipients at the May dinner meeting. Our local scholarships went to Cassandra Belcher, Susan Bray, and Brenda Taylor. Wendy Burkes is on an SBMEF Outright Grant.

INVOCATION

Lord, in the quiet of this evening hour,
We come to Thee for wisdom, and for power;
To view Thy world through only love-filled eyes;
To grow in understanding; to be wise
And sure to see Thy guiding light; and thus
To know each other as Thou knowest us.

Amen

BENEDICTION

O Guiding Spirit, Guardian of our days,
Be with us as we go our separate ways,
Help us to feel those thoughts that lift and bless,
To know a closer bond of friendliness;
To see Thy beauty always---every day,
Translated into living---this we pray.

Amen
